FALL LECTURE SERIES BEGINS: SUNDAY SEPTEMBER 23

BELLPORT-BROOKHAVEN HISTORICAL SOCIETY

DIPLOMATIC ARTISTIC EXOTIC HISTORIC

LECTURE SERIES 1

Robert Hickey,
Protocol School of Washington
Sunday, September 23
4 PM
LECTURE SERIES 1

A protocol professional explains how to navigate interactions with leaders from around the globe or colleagues from around your own organization or office.

Robert Hickey, Deputy Director of the Protocol School of Washington has written, developed or contributed to many books on diplomatic procedure. Most recently he is the author of Honor & Respect: The Official Guide to Names, Titles, and Forms of Address which is used at The White House, The British Embassy, The United States Supreme Court, the Pentagon and is in the permanent collections of the Library of Congress and Harvard Law School Library. Mr. Hickey has been featured on CNN, The Wall Street Journal, and in many other publications. He speaks frequently around the country to professional groups on a wide range of etiquette and protocol issues.

LECTURE SERIES 2

Paula Ludlow,
Director of Global Sales Training, Harry Winston, Inc
Sunday, September 30
4 PM
LECTURE SERIES 2

Harry Winston was the inventor of modern couture jewelry and the company has continually held an unrivaled position as the most exclusive and prestigious jewelry retailer of quality gems and innovative settings.

Their senior sales trainer recounts the history of the extraordinary founder and tales of extraordinary jewels.

An expert on sales training for over twelve years working with luxury brands such as Cartier, Chanel, Ralph Lauren and Montblanc, Ms Ludlow is now Director of global sales training for Harry Winston Inc.

LECTURE SERIES 3

Dr. Ira Hayes
Sunday, October 14
4 PM
LECTURE SERIES 3

From Opera to the Classical American Song Book. Why some voices thrill us and why they are unforgettable and instantly recognizable.

Ira Hayes got hooked on opera as a college freshman after seeing Salome. For years after that performance, he would join the standing room line at the old Met at 5 pm, going to about 20 performances a year. That line was his opera education. No longer a standee, he is still hooked on opera. A frequent lecturer on opera and voice, he has taught Opera Appreciation courses for The College of New Rochelle. Ira was the Supervisor of English for the Syosset Central School District. A long time Bellport/Brookhaven community resident, he holds Bachelor’s, Master’s and Doctorate degrees from Columbia.

LECTURE SERIES 4

Ray Hesselink,
Director/Choreographer and Dance Coach
Sunday, October 28
4 PM
LECTURE SERIES 4

A celebration of the work of the adored female tap dancer with movie clips from her films, and discussion of how her legacy is continuing to influence generations of new tap dancers.

Ray Hesselink is a Director/Choreographer living and working in New York City. Currently, Ray is a contributing choreographer on Heat Wave: The Jack Cole Project. As a dance instructor, Ray has had the privilege to help train the children who performed in Broadway’s Billy Elliot: The Musical. Ray has the privilege to help train the children who performed in Broadway’s Billy Elliot: The Musical. Ray is on Faculty at Juilliard, Broadway Dance Center and STEPS on Broadway in NYC. His new musical “I Love Bob” will be at the Joyce Soho this Summer. www.rayhesselink.com

TICKETS: Full series of four Fall Lectures: $50, Single tickets at door: $15
All lectures to be presented at the Historical Society, 12 Bell Street, Bellport NY 11713
Reserve a place please call 631-776-7340/events or bbhsmuseum.org/events
Or send a check payable to: BBHS PO Box 47, Bellport NY 11713  PLEASE MARK ENVELOPE “LECTURES” bbhsmuseum.org